Scrooge and Marley

Won Honorable Mention in the 2014 Readers' Favorite Awards

Fiction / Drama / English

ISBN: 9780615728506

Formats: 6" x 9" Paperback, Kindle ebook

Word count: 22,752

A year after Ebenezer Scrooge encountered the ghost of his partner, Jacob Marley, as well as the Ghosts of Christmas Past, Present and Future, Scrooge relives the previous Christmas and is visited by the ghost of Jacob Marley once more.

This expansion on Charles Dickens, A Christmas Carol, recounts how Marley unshackles his soul from previous deeds allowing Scrooge to partake of redemption.

Relive and recapture the essence of Christmas while exploring the wonders of life, living and death.

"The story keeps you completely engrossed as you discover the ghost's end game and how it will affect the living. The story has a perfect mix of drama and intrigue and enough bizarre events to keep you glued to the pages until the very end."

Author Biographies

Long version – 412 words

Born in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1925, Karl F. Hollenbach graduated from a local public high school in 1943 as a major in the junior ROTC. Entering the army on Christmas Eve that same year, he served as a sergeant in World War II with the U.S. Engineers. Assigned to the Seventh Army he crossed the Rhine River into Germany, ending up in Austria at the end of the European war.

He attended Biarritz American University, Purdue University, the University of Kentucky and earned a Masters of Education degree and Rank I in education from the University of Louisville. After 20 years in business as a sales representative, manager, and owner-operator of several retail stores, he made a career change to education.

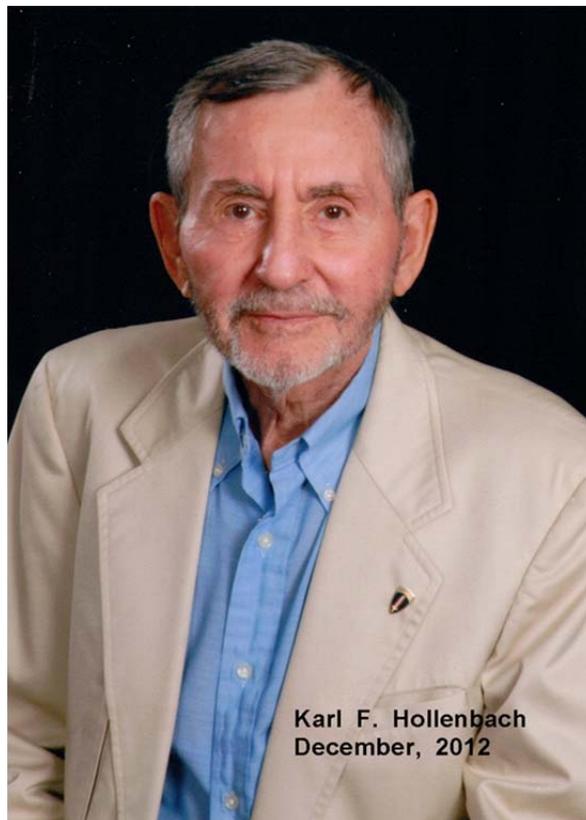

During the next 18 years, he taught in the Louisville, Kentucky public schools and the Hardin County Catholic school system. After the merger of two of the largest Kentucky public school systems, Karl served as a consultant to the Jefferson County school system and was a lecturer/coordinator of student teachers at the University of Louisville, School of Education.

A student of esoteric studies for over 50 years, he is a member of the Rosicrucian Order, Self-Realization Fellowship and the Association for Research and Enlightenment. He has lectured on esoteric subjects in a dozen cities, and his metaphysical articles have been published in Japan and England as well as the United States.

He lives near Fort Knox, Kentucky on Dunsinane Hill Farm with his artist wife of 63 years, Martha Jean. The 140-acre farm has been in Martha Jean's family for over 150 years and has been declared a Centennial Farm by the Commonwealth of Kentucky. He and his wife have travelled to Egypt, Greece, Ecuador, Bolivia, Peru, France, Germany, Great Britain, Austria, Switzerland, Croatia, India, and Nepal. They have three (3) children and four (4) grandchildren.

Re-careered (some would say retired) since 1986, Karl has devoted his time to researching, writing, lecturing and managing the family farm.

Karl is the author of five fiction books, and another five non-fiction titles. Among these are Top 100 Amazon Bestsellers Scrooge and Marley, Five Plays From The Gospels, and Handbook-Applying Metaphysical Principles In Teaching.

Additionally he has written several plays, a book of poetry and has composed over twenty (20) songs. Prodded by his insatiable desire for research and understanding he has rendered ten (10) Shakespearean plays into modern English and has compiled the four Gospels into four-columns per page for ease of comparison.
